REPORT ON OFFICER'S DUTIES IN REGARDS TO OSMALD'S DEATH E. L. ANDERTON - $1506

On the morning of November 2k, 1965 at about 11.15 AM I was watching television at home and saw where ice Herrey Camald had been about, while being to trunsferred from the City Jail to the County Jail. When I got/the office at about 1:00 PM, Jack Ruby was in Capt. Frita's office with several other man. I walked with Jack Bub: and several detections from the office to the elevator on the third floor whom Jack Feby was placed in jail.

During the afternoon of Newmber 21, 1663, Nw Grant, Jack Ruby's etster, seem in the office with another wits female and newmann, Jin Underwood. I took Nw Grant, the friend with her, and Jin Underwood into a back room and set them down. I talked to Nw Grant, and she asked me questions about what her brother was charred with and how she could set him out on bond.

For Orant told as that Jack Ruby had changed his ness from Jack Nuberstain to Jack Ruby while he was in the service. She and that she was afretd she had given Jack the idea to sheet Oswald by semathing she had said to him. She did not tell so what she had said to him. Eve said that Jack had telled to one of his brothers on the talephone on the night of Friday, November 29, 1963. She didn't tell menshich brother, or what was said. She only said that Jack was crying.

I left the office at about 12:30 AM. November 25, 1963, and went home.
